

CONSTANCE CARROLL TRAILBLAZER SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The San Diego Community College District's longest-serving Chancellor, Dr. Constance Carroll, made a profound impact on the district and its students. Dr. Carroll was the driving force behind the San Diego Promise, one of the largest free-tuition programs in California. To honor Dr. Carroll's legacy, the University of San Diego has created ten full-tuition scholarships designated for students who have graduated from one of the three San Diego Community College District schools.

Selection Criteria:

To be considered for the scholarship, applicants must have:

- completed (or be in the process of completing by the time of enrolling at USD) an Associate's Degree from Mesa College, City College or Miramar College.
- graduated from a public high school in San Diego Unified School District.
- filed the FAFSA by USD's priority deadline for the academic year the students wish to enroll.
- submitted the Transfer Common Application by USD's priority deadline for the academic year the students wish to enroll.
- completed a short supplemental Carroll Trailblazer Scholarship form highlighting their own "changemaking" and "trailblazing" experiences, commitment to social justice and other related activities. To access the scholarship form, please visit www.sandiego.edu/trailblazer.
