

Updates to ASC&B Language on ASRE Committee

Clarifying and Updating ASC&B Language regarding ASRE Committee:

New language is in red:

This committee of the Academic Senate shall evaluate the equity of initiatives, practices and policies that may have a disproportionate impact on adjunct faculty; increase awareness of opportunities to support adjunct faculty success and retention; identify any disparity in adjunct faculty access to professional development; and explore partnerships to help improve resources and compensation available to adjunct faculty.

ASRE is a committee of the Miramar Academic Senate comprised of two part-time faculty from each of the five college areas, plus one at large contract faculty member and one at large classified professional.
