Monday, October 14

Undocu-Ally Training: Indigenous & Undocumented

To honor Indigenous Peoples' Day, the Miramar Dreamers Center is offering a special UAT highlighting the struggles and achievements of Indigenous People and Native Americans who have ambiguous legal status including the many tribal members who are undocumented.

10:00 am via Zoom, register online at sdmiramar.edu/services/dreamers/ally

Undocu-Hustle: Earning an Income With or Without Work Authorization

Join the Miramar Dreamers Support Office for a presentation about earning an income regardless of work authorization status and explore your interests to learn how to create a small business, consultancy, or make money in the gig economy.

12:00 pm in the K1-202 Counseling Classroom

Tuesday, October 15

Latinx Heritage Month Guest Speaker and Author Randy Parraz

The Miramar College Leading Equity, Anti-Racism and Diversity (LEAD) Office is closing out Latinx Heritage Month with a presentation by Randy Parraz author of Dignity by Fire: Dismantling Arizona's Anti-Immigrant Machine followed by an open Q&A with the audience.

10:30 am in the K2-102 Community Lounge

Undocu-mentaries We Love: Underwater Dreams (2014) with FREE popcorn!

In partnership with the Student Affairs Office and STEM Éxito Project at Miramar College, the Dreamers Support Office is hosting a film screening of Underwater Dreams (2014) to learn about the inspiring story of four undocumented Mexican-American high school students who enter an underwater robotics competition at the collegiate level. FREE popcorn and refreshments provided! A brief presentation about STEM opportunities for undocumented students to follow.

12:00 pm in the K1-211 Student Lounge

Wednesday, October 16

Coffee & Crafts: Butterfly Origami

To celebrate the monarch butterfly as an important symbol of the Dreamers Movement and migration in general, our Dream Team will guide students through a butterfly-themed Coffee & Crafts session!

12:30 pm in the K1-211 Student Lounge

Thursday, October 17

Healthy Relationships Workshop

Mental Health Counseling at Miramar College is partnering with the Dreamers Support Office for a presentation about healthy relationships. We will be highlighting healthy relationship skills and learning about dating and relationship red flags. We will discuss how to recognize unhealthy or abusive relationship behaviors. We will also learn about supportive resources including Mental Health, Title IX, and the Violence Against Women Act.
