V. NEW BUSINESS

A. Senator Project Reports

(Senator Representative Blaize Fonseca | 10 Mins. | Discussion)

The senators will report on their group-projects by providing an overview of past activity.

- a. Treas. Sindhu Narasimha motioned to table the item above to after the General Assembly item. Sen. Matt Price seconded.
- b. Senate Rep. Blaize Fonseca provided space for groups to present updates on their Senator Projects.

- c. Menstrual Product Project - Sen. Ava Mackey reported that they brought the topic up to the Facilities Committee meeting last week. They are trying to get in contact with GAIA and continuing to work on progressing with their project.
- d. Fitness Center Project - Sen. Matt Price spoke with VP Bell and saw how Mesa and City College are implementing their fitness centers for their student services. He still needs to reach out to someone, but he is making progress on his project..
- e. ASG TikTok Project - Sen. Daniel Sifuentes reported that they have a video set for Monday. Sen. Jay Oliva has the account information.
- f. ASG Canvas Shell - Sen. Ryan Pacheco has been meeting with Dean Barnard and scheduled a meeting with her to meet up soon. They have been discussing implications of the project campus-wide and overall guidance for where to start. There are several administrative faculty members that may be holding a meeting to discuss the pros and cons of the projects. It is not really clear though.
- g. San Diego Promise Program Project - Sen Tara Patel reported that their original plan was not going to work out since the resolution proposing for the Promise Program to extend to three years was not accepted by the State Assembly, so they are currently working on ways to improve it. They are also collaborating with high schools and other programs to advocate for the program.
- h. Pres. Hailey Hua announced the President's arrival. He briefly introduced himself and talked about various topics and concerns.

B. General Assembly

(Joseph Hankinson | 10 Mins. | Information/Discussion/Action)

Advisor Hankinson will provide an overview of the General Assembly and will ask for approval on Advocacy funds for this event.

- a. The General Assembly is the next conference that a few chosen ASG members will attend in L.A. on April 4th to the 6th.
- b. Joseph Hankinson proposed to approve a budget up to $10,000 from the Advocacy Funds so that he could begin planning things as soon as possible. He said, "...up to" because the exact funds are unknown at the moment. He based the general budget on previous years. Most of the Advocacy Funds are usually used for conferences like above.
- c. Sen. Ava Mackey motioned to approve Joseph Hankinson's budget proposal for up to $10,000 for the General Assembly Conference. Sen. Claudio Nevells seconded.
- d. Sen. Titus Balch asked if the people attending will have direct participation. Joseph Hankinson answered that there are opportunities during the assembly for discussions.
- e. Dean Barnard clarified that the General Assembly is not really a leadership conference, but rather a connection to the State Senate and the resolutions presented from all the community colleges in California. It is an opportunity to hold discussions about the presented resolution and to see if they can move their way up legislation.
- f. Treas. Sindhu Narasimha added how this was also the time where the Board and Region positions are elected.
- g. Vote: Everyone present raised their hand and said, "I." No one opposed. The vote passed unanimously.

C. Resolutions Training

(Joseph Hankinson | 30 Mins. | Information/Discussion)

Advisor Hankinson will provide an overview of the State Resolution Process and lead discussion on possible resolution topics.

- a. Joseph Hankinson further clarified that each college has the ability to write resolutions that will potentially benefit community colleges throughout the state. If approved, it will move forward to higher legislation.
- b. An example would be having menstrual products at community colleges in California and having it be refilled consistently. But, the problem is that it is not funded well enough, so you can write a proposal about it.

- c. Pres. Hailey Hua announced that there is an official resolutions training in room K1-107 on Dec. 6th for the Delegate meeting from 12 PM to 3 PM. There is also a training session on Zoom on the 22nd. She said that she will send more information about it later.
- d. Pres. Hailey Hua read through the Resolutions Training Presentation.
