(ASG Executive Board | Information/Discussion)

The ASG Executive Board will lead the discussion for possible questions regarding menstrual products and public safety availability surveys.

- a. Senate Rep. Blaize Fonseca led the continuing item from the last meeting. He showed a Google Form and asked for everyone's feedback on the questions in order to make amendments to the survey. He walked through the public safety availability survey. The participants in the ASG body, including the ASC Coordinator Donnie Tran, provided lots of feedback regarding improvements that should be made.
- b. Sen. Matthew Price motioned to extend the item's time by two minutes. The Club Rep. for SPECTRUM seconded.
- c. Any concerns and/or questions should be directed to Senate Rep. Blaize Fonseca.

V. NEW BUSINESS

A. Resolution Workshop Interest Discussion | 10 minutes

(Advisor Joseph Hankinson & The ASG Executive Board | Information/Discussion)

Advisor Hankinson and the ASG Executive Board will discuss interests in holding a resolution workshop sometime before January.

- a. Advisor Joseph Hankinson brought up the subject of possibly scheduling a day to hold a resolution workshop and asked if people were interested in the meeting sometime in January. The workshop would be open to members of the public, including club representatives. There were a few people interested in attending a workshop. There would be a short refresher training period and the workshop would hopefully consist of writing drafts to present to the General Summit.
- b. Tentative Date: Wednesday, January 15th from 9AM to 2 PM in K1-107. Advisor Joseph Hankinson will work on getting it confirmed.
