

Vocabulary and Etymology for Anatomy: Section 9 Heart

Etymology (Word Origins) for Heart: Find the word origins indicated.

1. Myocardocytes; myo _____; cardio _____ and cyte _____.
2. Autorhythmic; auto means _____, rhythmic _____.
3. In pericardium, peri- means _____; endocardium, endo means _____.
4. Atrium means _____; auricle means _____.
5. In ventricle, ventr- means _____ and icle means _____.
6. In trabeculae carneae, trabecula means _____, carne means _____.
7. In semilunar, semi- means _____ and lunar means _____.
8. In coronary sinus, - corona means _____, sinus means _____.
9. Infarction, infarct- means _____, stenosis means _____.
10. Ischemia, isch- means _____, -emia means _____.
11. In syncytium, sync means _____ and cyt- means _____.
12. In autorhythmic, auto- means _____ and rhythmic means _____.
13. In ectopic focus, ec- means _____ and top means _____.
14. Tachycardia, tachy- means _____; bradycardia, brady- means _____.
15. In sphygmomanometer, sphygmo, means _____; meter means _____.
16. In pectinate muscle, pectin means _____ and ate means _____.
17. In hemopoiesis, hemo- means _____ and -poiesis means _____.
18. In erythrocyte, erythro- means _____ and cyte means _____.
19. In hypoxemia, hypo _____, ox- _____, -emia _____.
20. In hemolysis, -lysis means _____; myelocytic, myelo- means _____.
21. In anemia, an- means _____ and -emia means _____.
22. Thrombosis means _____. Apex means _____.
23. In hemostasis, hemo means _____ and -stasis means _____.
24. Chordae means _____, tendineae means _____.
25. In circumflex, circum means _____, and flex means _____.