Promise Progress
Report

Limited Promise Counseling appointments are available to current San Diego Promise students.

Students are able to schedule appointments two weeks in advance.

There has been an increase of students not attending their counseling appointment.

To address this issue, if you fail to make your appointment, you will be directed to receive services from the main counseling office instead.

Schedule an Appointment

If there are no appointments available, you can either:

(1) check back the next business day for more appointments or

(2) you can schedule an appointment through our main Counseling Office to fulfill your meeting with a counselor requirement at:

<https://www.sdmiramar.edu/services/counseling> ↗

Meeting with a DSPS or EOPS Counselor will also meet this requirement.
