BROUGHT TO YOU BY GAIA, IDEA, MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING AND THE AFT'S SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE.

Denim Day is an annual international campaign held on the last Wednesday of April (Sexual Assault Awareness Month) where people wear jeans to protest against harmful misconceptions surrounding sexual violence and victim-blaming. It protests a 1990s Italian court ruling that suggested tight jeans implied consent to rape.

JOIN US FOR A PROTEST POSTER-MAKING ART ACTIVITY LED BY CUELLAR.

Cuellar (they/them) is a queer multimedia artist living in Southern California with professional works ranging from cast metal sculpture, fabrication, installation and experiential art, professional photography, printmaking, and collage.

HEALTHY HEALING ACTIVITIES!
PROTEST POSTER ACTIVITY, SPACES FOR
JOURNALING, ART, SELF-AFFIRMATION;
MORE DETAILS TO COME!
