

BLACK STUDENT SUCCESS
WEEK

REVOLUTION: (RE)DEFINING BLACK STUDENT SUCCESS

BLACK STUDENT SUCCESS WEEK: APRIL 20 -24

FROM 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM, DAILY

MON

20

#THEBLACKHOUR-FROM DESIGNATION TO DECLARATION: BSIS LEAD IN CALIFORNIA

This session explores the rise of Black Serving Institutions in California, including the policy changes that led to their growth. Participants will hear from BSI leaders about how they are putting Black Servingness into practice. The discussion will focus on how institutions are driving change and supporting Black student success.

LOCATION: I- 124
2ND FLOOR
ENGLISH BUILDING

TUE

21

#THEBLACKHOUR- ROI AS ECONOMIC LIBERATION: HIGHER EDUCATION'S MORAL OBLIGATION

This session highlights return on investment and economic mobility as key measures of Black student success. Speakers will discuss shifting from access to outcomes that lead to real economic advancement. The conversation challenges institutions to ensure Black students see meaningful financial returns after completion.

REGISTER FOR VIRTUAL SESSION

WED

22

#THEBLACKHOUR- NO MORE GATEKEEPING: REDESIGNING MATH PATHWAYS FOR SERVINGNESS

Transfer-level math is a major barrier to completion for many students. This session explores strategies to support Black student success in these courses. Panelists will discuss ways to redesign pathways and remove barriers while maintaining rigor.

LOCATION: I- 124
2ND FLOOR
ENGLISH BUILDING

THU

23

#THEBLACKHOUR-BASIC NEEDS SUPPORT IS INSTITUTIONAL INFRASTRUCTURE, NOT INTERVENTION

This session presents findings from the 2025 Real College Basic Needs Survey, highlighting key barriers faced by students, including Black students. It explores how institutions can better support needs like food, housing, mental health, and financial stability. The discussion emphasizes student support as a core institutional responsibility.

LOCATION: I- 124
2ND FLOOR
ENGLISH BUILDING

For disability accommodations,
please email Miramarlead@sdccd.edu
at least 3 days prior to the event.

SAN DIEGO
MIRAMAR
COLLEGE

LEADING EQUITY,
ANTI-RACISM &
DIVERSITY (LEAD)