III. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

IV. NEW BUSINESS

A. Land Acknowledgement | Professor Gonzalez (10 minutes)

-nothing was discussed as Professor Gonzalez was unable to attend the meeting

B. Fitness Drive Through | 5 minutes

- Student Activism was thinking of creating a fitness goody bag as a graduation gift
- Currently the idea is just in talks and are still over-viewing the logistics of the concept as well as the finances

C. Miramar Website Survey | 7 minutes

- Senator Mandie: Student Activism wants to include a survey on the front page of the Miramar Website to find out what resources/improvements students would like to see on and off campus
- The survey is open for feedback.
- After discussion, it was decided that Senator Mandie would make the following revisions before posting the survey: include the ASG page on the helpful resource page and change the example of “gender neutral bathrooms” to “campus facilities”
- Senator Mirely motioned to approve the survey, Senator Samashti seconded.

V. STANDING ITEMS

A. Covid-19 Roundtable | 3 minutes

- The schedules for Fall 2021 will go live in April. Not all classes will be in person.
- Senator Mirley: Having an on-campus orientation for new students would be helpful (i.e. small groups tour the campus)
- Dean Barnard: Art, Chemistry, Biology, and Lab classes should be some of the classes that need to go in person.
- Senator Pearson and Rep Edward: STEM classes should be prioritized.

B. ASG Committee Meetings | 30 minutes
