Professor David Wilhelm Joins Good Morning San Diego

Business professor David Wilhelm was a guest of Good Morning San Diego on August 28. Professor Wilhelm was afforded 8 minutes of airtime during the 9:00am hour to discuss personal financial management with KUSI-TV anchor Dan Plante. Professor Wilhelm is teaching Business 120 - Personal Financial Management this fall. His class is offered online. Click here to view the segment.

SAY Grant Received

The Miramar College Business Department received a $10,000 grant from Wells Fargo to assist San Diego's SAY (Social Advocates for Youth) Program. Several of our business students will be given an annual scholarship to design, develop and deliver a training program focused on effective strategies on proper use of social media within the SAY organization. The project will enable students to apply their technical knowledge and organizational skills learned as a business student to help SAY support its mission. SAY San Diego is a local non-profit organization that assists an artist and professor of Studio Art at Eastfield College in Mesquite, TX. Born in Texas, Willburn lives and works in Fort Worth, Texas. He earned an MFA from Vermont College of Fine Arts. His work has been shown nationally and internationally at venues including Dallas Contemporary, Helmuth Projects (San Diego), University of Art and Design (Helsinki, Finland) Museum of Arts and Design (New York, NY), Union Gallery at University of Wisconsin (Milwaukee, WI) and Museum of Contemporary Craft (Portland, Oregon).

and the state of sexual assault legislation. His 90-minute discussion took place in L-105.

Chelsea King, a 17-year old Poway High School student, was murdered on Feb. 25, 2010 after setting out for a run near Lake Hodges. Her killer was a convicted sex offender. As a result, King helped author legislation that would strengthen sentencing laws for sex offenses and provide more oversight for offenders on parole. According to King, since its passage in Sept. of 2010, over 600 people have been convicted under Chelsea's Law in California.

Chancellor's Forum

Dr. Constance Carroll visited campus on September 19 for the annual Chancellor's Forum. She discussed issues affecting the District and plans for the future. The Chancellor reminded everyone how the fiscal picture for the upcoming budget year is good. She pointed out that the District is the 12th largest employer in the County of San Diego and produces the second largest FTES in the state at 44,578. She stated the goal is to get Miramar College to 10,000 FTES as fast as possible.

Brent King Visits Campus

Brent King, the father of Chelsea King, addressed Administration of Justice students on campus on Friday, Sept. 23. King discussed the impact of Chelsea's Law

Campus Construction Update

Now that the Fall semester is off and running, we have closed the Miramar College Drive entrance effective September 21, 2016. Originally this closure was scheduled for 9/2 and we received a small grace period. This closure will remain in effect until the beginning of December 2016. For those traveling north bound on Black Mountain Road, you will be directed to enter the campus just north of parking lot #2. For those traveling south bound on Black Mountain Road, you will be instructed to U-turn at Miramar

College Drive entrance, proceed north bound and enter just north of parking lot #2. We currently have signage in place at the college entrance notifying all of the pending closure. This closure will compound the previously noted Black Mountain Road lane closures. Please allow for more time when arriving and please drive safely.

Scholarship Workshop

Recent Jack Kent Cooke Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship winner Thaimae Le returned to campus on September 15 to lead a workshop on how to apply for the scholarship. Last spring, Le won the honor, thus running Miramar's streak to 5 consecutive years with a Jack Kent Cooke Scholarship winner. Le is now enrolled at UC San Diego.

PEOPLE

Peggy Hunt is retiring after 27 years of service to the district with 14 of those years at Miramar College. A going away party will be held in her honor on Saturday, October 1 from 5pm-9pm at Filippi's Pizza Grotto in Mira Mesa. The cost to attend is $25 and please RSVP by September 23 to Terrie Hubbard or Stacey Fabian.

Mona Patel is the new Career Center coordinator. Mona comes to Miramar College following two years of work as an adjunct counselor at Mesa College and Palomar College. Prior to that, she held a variety of positions in a broad range of educational settings, including UC Riverside, UC Davis, CSU Sacramento, Sacramento City College, and American River College. She holds a MS in Counseling with a career specialization from CSU Sacramento and a BA in Sociology from UC Davis.

Former student and current Miramar College employee, Kanchan Farkiya, has won the title, Ms. Asian North America 2016. Kanchan works in the Child Development Center. She won the honor on July 9 at the Venetian Resort in Las Vegas.
